These are tough cuts and David Cameron and Nick Clegg would prefer an easier path but the Conservative-Lib Dem coalition inherited a massive deficit and debt and they need to take these steps now to prevent things from getting even worse.	1001	375 37%	330 33%	164 16%	105 10%	27 3%	3.00	0.99	0.03

Q13. The coalition government is committed to a range of public spending cuts to reduce Britain's budget deficit, which has been running at more than £160 billion a year. Thinking about the government's planned cuts, please say if you agree or disagree with each of the following statements. The coalition government is right to start making cuts now, so as to start dealing with the deficit, but they should do it more gradually to reduce the risk of harming the economy.
